

Abstract

Tropylium tetrafluoroborate has been utilized as a Brønsted base for the 1,6-conjugate addition of indoles to para-quinone methides. This transformation occurs at mild conditions and is tolerant to a variety of functional groups. This protocol provides an easy and straightforward access to a set of unsymmetrical diarylindolylmethanes in good to excellent yield.